I have always been paid more than my male counterparts.

Work hard. Ask for what you want.

Why do people still believe there's a gender wage gap?

If, for the same work, women make only 77 cents for every dollar a man makes, why don't businesses hire only women?

@CHSommers explains the stats.

No. We were like this long before danny. Danny was the catalyst for me to admit something was wrong. At one point I went to the OB/GYN And asked her if something was wrong with my hormones because I was never interested in sleeping with my husband and I used to love it. She said it was normal and that was what happens when we have kids and we are exhausted.

I only cried 3 times over it and they all didn't last long. And One was when I was speaking to you.
